BUFFALO, N. Y.Rabies—Prevention of—Muzzling of Dogs. (Ord. July 16, 1916.)

That section 155 of chapter 25 of the ordinances of the city of Buffalo be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

SEC. 155. No person owning or having the care, custody, or charge of any dog shall allow or permit such dog, whether in the company of any person or not to be upon any street or public place, unless such dog shall be muzzled or securely held in leash to prevent such dog from biting. Any person owning or having the care, custody, or charge of any dog which is kept on the premises shall, unless said dog is in his or her immediate custody, keep it muzzled or securely fastened in such manner as to prevent said dog from biting any person entering upon or leaving such premises. Any dog found at large or in any place in violation of the provisions of this section shall be seized as directed or ordered by the chief of police and taken to the dog pound, and if not redeemed within three days thereafter such dog shall be destroyed. Before any dog is redeemed from such pound the police shall require proper and sufficient proof of the ownership of said dog. It shall also be the duty of the police to report to the corporation counsel the name and addresses of every person redeeming any such dog. Whenever in any action in the city court of Buffalo against the owner or other person having the care, custody, or control of any dog, satisfactory proof is submitted to said court that such dog is vicious and dangerous by reason of its having bitten or injured any person, the judge of said court before whom the case is tried may issue an order to the chief of police directing the destruction of such dog. In compliance with such order, such dog shall be killed at the dog pound. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine or penalty of not less than $3 nor more than $100. The foregoing amendment is immediately necessary for the preservation of public health and safety.

And that section 15 of chapter 21 of the ordinances of the city of Buffalo be, and the same is hereby, amended to read as follows:

SEC. 15. The chief of police shall either personally or through the captains of the respective precincts issue licenses to residents of the city who own or keep a dog or dogs to permit the same to run at large within the city limits. No person owning or harboring a dog within the limits of the city of Buffalo shall permit such dog to run at large unless he shall have procured a license as herein provided; nor unless such dog shall have on a suitable collar to which shall be attached the tag or license plate issued with such license. Such license shall expire on the 30th day of June in each year and shall be granted only upon the payment in advance of the sum of $1 for each male and $2 for each female dog so owned or harbored. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine or penalty of not to exceed $50. The foregoing amendment is immediately necessary for the conduct and administration of the department of public safety.

PORTLAND, OREG.Communicable Diseases—Return to School of Pupils Absent on Account of—Appointment of Physicians Authorized to Issue Permits. (Ord. 31663, Apr. 26, 1916.)

SECTION 1. That the commissioner of public safety be, and is hereby, authorized to appoint not to exceed 10 physicians, whose duty it shall be to issue permits authorizing children who have been absent from school on account of any communicable disease to return to school as soon as the period for the transmission of such disease has passed.

SEC. 2. That the physicians authorized to be appointed under the provisions of this ordinance shall receive a salary of $15 per month, payable out of the appropriation for personal service heretofore made on account of the bureau of health, for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1916.

Dairies—Permit Required. (Ord. 31473, Mar. 1, 1916.)

SECTION 1. After April 1, 1916, it shall be unlawful to maintain, within the corporate limits of the city of Portland, any dairy where more than two cows are kept without obtaining a permit therefor.

SEC. 2. No permit shall be granted for the maintenance of a dairy except upon the application of the owner or occupant of the premises proposed to be used for dairy purposes, and only after notice of such application is given and a hearing thereon is had as provided by this ordinance.

SEC. 3. Each such application shall be filed with the city auditor and shall set forth the location of the land whereon the dairy is to be maintained, a description of said land, and the maximum number of cows to be kept.

SEC. 4. At the time of filing such application, or before, the applicant shall post a notice of said application in two conspicuous positions on the premises to be used as a dairy, so that the same may be clearly read from a street or highway abutting thereon. Said notice shall state the name of the applicant filing said application, the description and location of the premises to be used as a dairy, and the maximum number of cows to be kept therein. Said applicant shall at the same time serve a copy of said notice upon the owner or agent of the owner, if either can be found, or, if neither can be found, then upon the occupant of each dwelling house within 100 feet of the lot lines, if on platted property, or within 200 feet of any part of the building to be used as a dairy barn if on unplatted property; and said applicant shall at the time of filing said application make and file an affidavit with the city auditor that he has posted and served said notices as provided and shall set out in said affidavit the name and post-office address of each person served.

SEC. 5. At the next regular meeting of the city council after the expiration of 10 days from the filing of such application the council shall hear the applicant and all persons interested in the matter of such application, and shall either grant or refuse such permit. Hearing and action on such application may be continued to any subsequent meeting.

SEC. 6. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof in the municipal court, be punished by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment in the municipal jail for a period not exceeding 30 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and each day that such violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense.

SEC. 7. In the event that any applicant for a permit under this ordinance shall practice any fraud upon the council by withholding or misrepresenting any material fact the council reserves the right to cancel any such permit.

SEC. 8. That ordinance No. 30869 of the city of Portland, entitled "An ordinance prohibiting the use of certain buildings for a dairy without a license, prescribing the manner of applying for and granting such licenses, and providing a penalty for violations," passed by the council September 8, 1916, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

Meat—Inspection of—Slaughtering and Slaughterhouses—Sanitary Regulation.
(Ord. 31461, Feb. 28, 1916.)

SECTION 1. Definitions.—Wherever, in this ordinance, the following words, names, or terms are used, they shall be construed as follows, unless otherwise specifically indicated:

Animals shall include cattle, calves, sheep, swine, and goats.

Bureau of health shall mean the bureau of health of the city of Portland.
